

Event	Central European Forum for passenger railway transport 2010
Subject	Investments related to EURO 2012
Date	6 May 2010
Location	Intercontinental Hotel, Warsaw

The Conference:

International conference about several aspects of the passenger railway transport in Poland, in comparison to other European countries and its position on the European railway market.

PRICE: 990 PLN + 22% VAT (1207.08 PLN gross)

Organizer: Railway Market Forum

Program description:

Part 1: Domestic and international intercities today seen within the European context

- Rail in the light of European law:
 - The experience of liberalization
 - Passenger rights
 - European high speed rail network
- Better quality intercity transportation in Europe?
- Analysis of the progress of liberalization of the European passenger railway transport market
- Long-term development strategy PKP Intercity
- Student Agency: a new vision of the Czech railway market
- PKP IC vs. PKP PR: the search for solutions to political errors

Part 2: Regional railways and efficient processes and management

- regional railway - self-management of the railway operator
- Private operator: small but effective
- Rapid urban rail systems in Poland and Europe
- Modern technologies in railway passenger transport: expert panel

Part 3: The demand on the market

- Efficient building and integrating timetables: An expert panel
- Railjet: premium-class service - a remedy for lack of KDP
- Hamburg-Cologne Express
- Railways Regional and interregional cooperation: a vision for the future: panel discussion