

Meeting with	Leszek Bartoń
Organization	Pol-Aqua S.A.
Date	2 March 2009
Location	Phone interview

Introduction:

Mr. Leszek Bartoń is a Warsaw National Stadium project director within Pol-Aqua S.A.. The company provides construction services in the scope of engineering, ecology, roads and pipelines. It develops comprehensive underground infrastructure and road works for commercial and residential facilities as well as logistic centers.

Projects:

Pol-Aqua S.A. carries out projects in the scope of construction and engineering works for development of building plots infrastructure and the existing infrastructure of cities and communes (like water pipes, sewage, heat, power, telecom, networks).

Currently the Pol-Aqua S.A. company is realizing the first stage of the National Stadium in Warsaw. The foundation works are about to be finished soon, and most likely the company will take part in the building of the second stage of the Warsaw stadium which will be ready for Euro 2012 organized by Poland and Ukraine.

Opportunities:

If speaking about opportunities for Dutch companies Mr. Leszek Bartoń pointed first of all the high quality equipment providers. Moreover, he told us that his company is developing and looking for foreign partners with whom it could take part in tenders in following areas of infrastructure development:

- Sports halls, swimming pools,
- Stadiums,
- To the company areas of interest among others belongs:
- Sewage treatment plants,
- Sewage pumping stations,
- Water purification plants,
- Earth works (excavations, embankments, ground replacing),
- Micro-tunnels and tunnels,
- Heat distribution networks,

- Telecommunication networks,
- Road tunnels,
- Roads and motorways,
- Road culverts and undercrossings,
- Car parks, pavements, roadsides,

More information:

Contact details of: Pol-Agua S.A.
Head Office
Ul. Dworska 1, 05-500 Piaseczno
Tel: +48 22 201 73 01
Email: repcja@pol-aqua.com.pl