

Interview with	Piotr Szatkowski – project manager Revitalization Warsaw Central Station
Organization	PORR
Date	15-11-2010
Location	Phone interview

PORR is an international construction group with its headquarter in Vienna and a decentralized business structure. PORR's turnover was in 2009 approximate 3 billion in and with 12.000 employees worldwide, it is one of the largest construction companies in Austria.

The Polish cell is concerned with the revitalization of the Warsaw Central Station. The project has a value of 47 million dollars and is financed from PKP SA own resources.

The revitalizations consist of:

- More space and light in the station
- A new electronic information system
- New ticket machines and information points
- Re-arrangement of the commercial gallery
- Lifts, signs for the blind, the eradication of architectural barriers and others for disabled people
- Reorganization of traffic around the train station favoring customers and passengers, and providing greater freedom of movement of cars.

- The work commenced four months ago with the main hall of the railway station from the Jerozolimskie Avenue and plans to finish this part of the station in the second quarter of 2011. At the same time, PORR started to work from the outside of the main hall.
- The work on the platforms will start in February 2011.
- The project will be carried out in phases. In the nearby time there will be no tenders publicized.
- Mr Szatkowski requested to send him per email the offers of relevant products and services of Task force members. We granted his request.
